Your webinar at the 2023 IHF Education Weeks

Dear Mr Struzik,

The International Handball Federation would like to thank you most sincerely for your participation as a lecturer in this year's IHF Education Weeks.

The IHF Education Weeks are an ambitious project that needs the support of all the enthusiastic members of the handball family, and we are deeply grateful for your valuable contribution. Thousands of handball enthusiasts have attended the educational courses and benefited greatly from your expertise.

On behalf of the IHF, I would herewith like to congratulate you on your successful participation and your efforts in the preparation of your webinar. We wish you great success in your future tasks and challenges and look forward to a possible future collaboration for the benefit of handball development worldwide.

Best regards,

INTERNATIONAL HANDBALL FEDERATION
